A LOVE RESTORED

Evangelism brings the Lord's people together

The kitchen of the Indianapolis Eastside Seventh-day Adventist Church was quiet except for the low hum of regular meal preparation when LT Gates received the call to rush upstairs. As a 78-year-old physician known affectionately around the church as its "sous chef," LT was accustomed to stepping in wherever needed. Given the active nature of the ministry happening around him during the high-energy evangelistic series, his immediate instinct was to expect a medical emergency. He left what he was doing and walked up the steps, mentally preparing to problem-solve.

British Columbia Conference

With 108 churches and companies and eighty-seven ethnic groups represented, British Columbia is one of the most culturally diverse—and secular—mission fields in Canada. Yet Pentecost 2025 sparked a renewed energy for evangelism in British Columbia, with seventy-six entities applying for funding.

Professions of Faith

Every month, youth from Cariboo Central Seventh-day Adventist Church organized concerts in a city park, using testimony and song to create spaces where music and faith could intersect. Elsewhere, First Nations ministries built and strengthened relationships within Indigenous communities.

Across the province, lives were transformed. In White Rock, a person with a Buddhist background found fellowship through meals and ministry and became an active member. In Smithers, a former member returned, was baptized, and is now involved in ministry. The Ukrainian church company in Burnaby welcomed seventeen Ukrainians, four of whom were baptized.

For conference leaders, however, the greatest impact of Pentecost 2025 was not simply the baptisms. It was the beginning of a culture of evangelism.

In an October 2025 ministry update, British Columbia Conference president Brad Thorp challenged members to continue their evangelistic efforts. "Pentecost 2025 is not going to end when the old year goes out," he said. The seeds planted in 2025 continue to bear fruit across British Columbia.

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven."

THE PRAYER INITIATIVE

All Things New is the public-facing expression of the Seventh-day Adventist Church's global OneVoice27 initiative—a worldwide movement uniting members around a shared mission leading to September 2027.

Building on the momentum of Pentecost 2025 and Pentecost & Beyond, this initiative invites Seventh-day Adventists across North America to renew their relationship with Jesus and share His hope with their communities.

Inspired by Christ's promise in Revelation 21:5, "Behold, I am making all things new," All Things New reminds us that Jesus continues to restore lives, heal hearts, and offer hope for the future.

As we approach 2027—approximately 2,000 years since the beginning of Christ's public ministry—we are called to unite in sharing His story through personal relationships, compassionate service, and digital mission.

"Jesus remains the answer to the deepest needs of humanity. Our desire is for every member to experience that renewal and then become a messenger of hope within their own community."

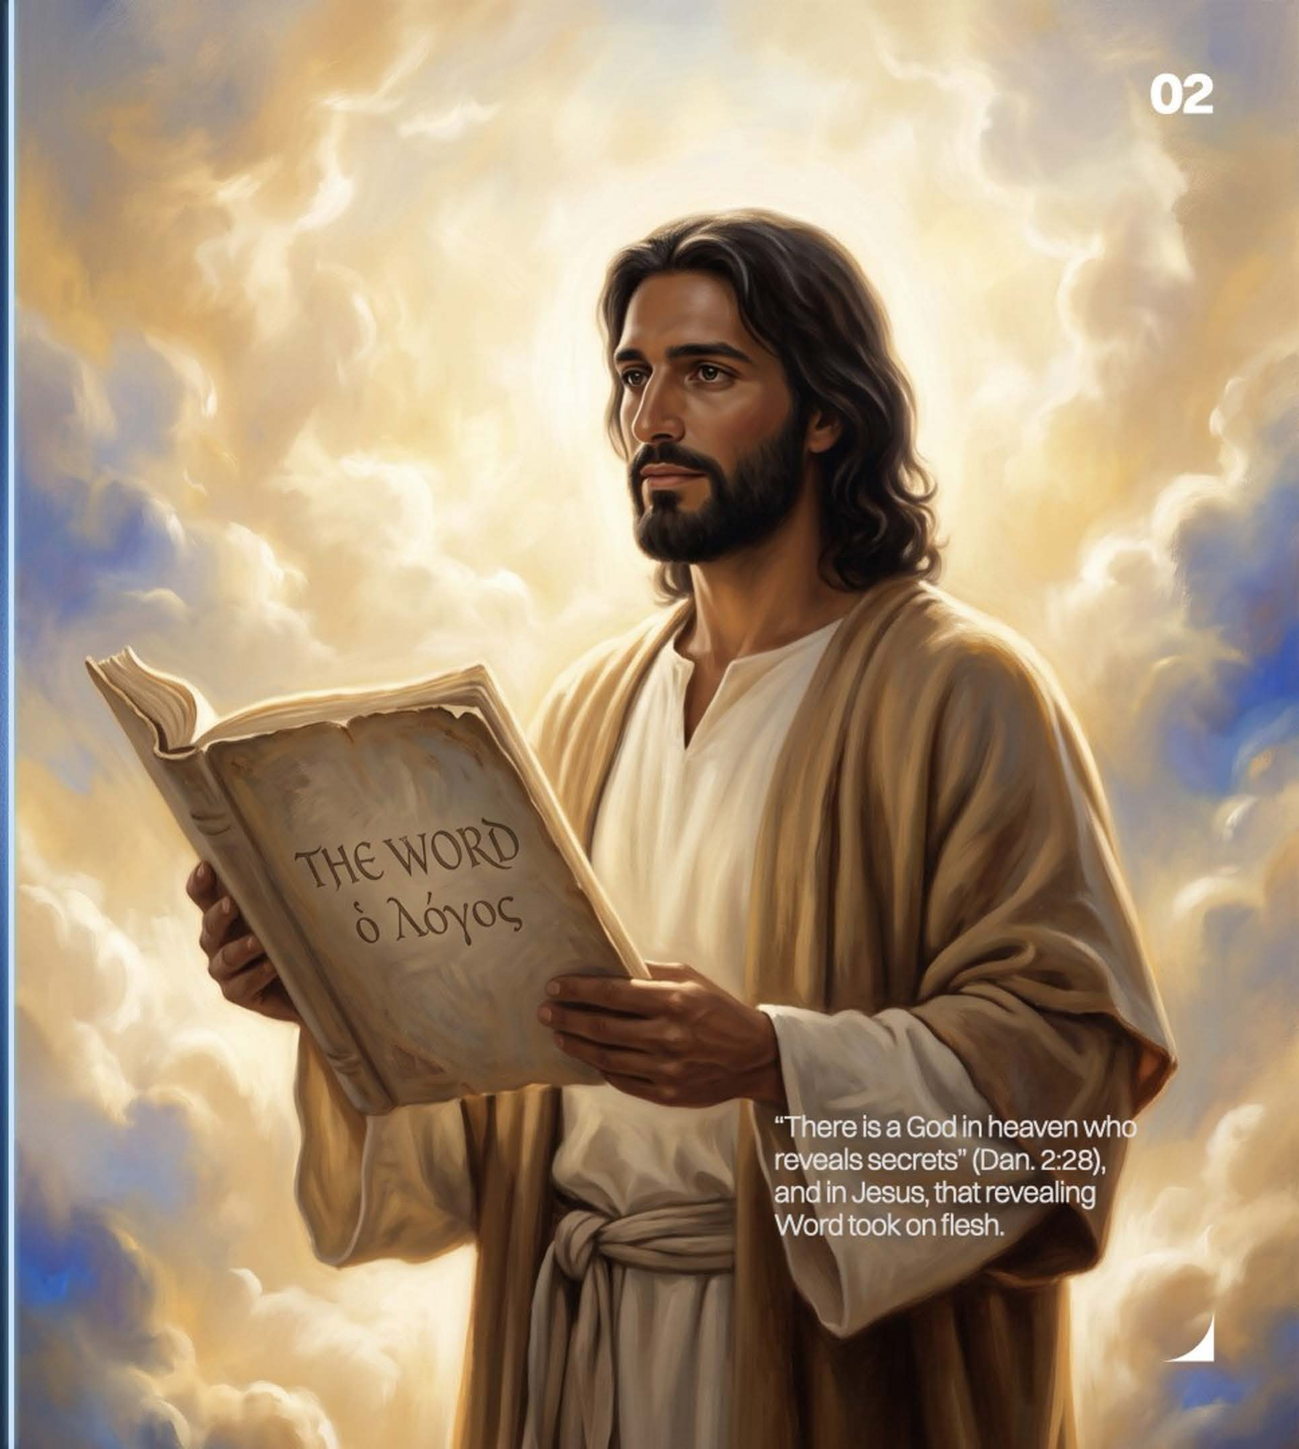
JESUS,

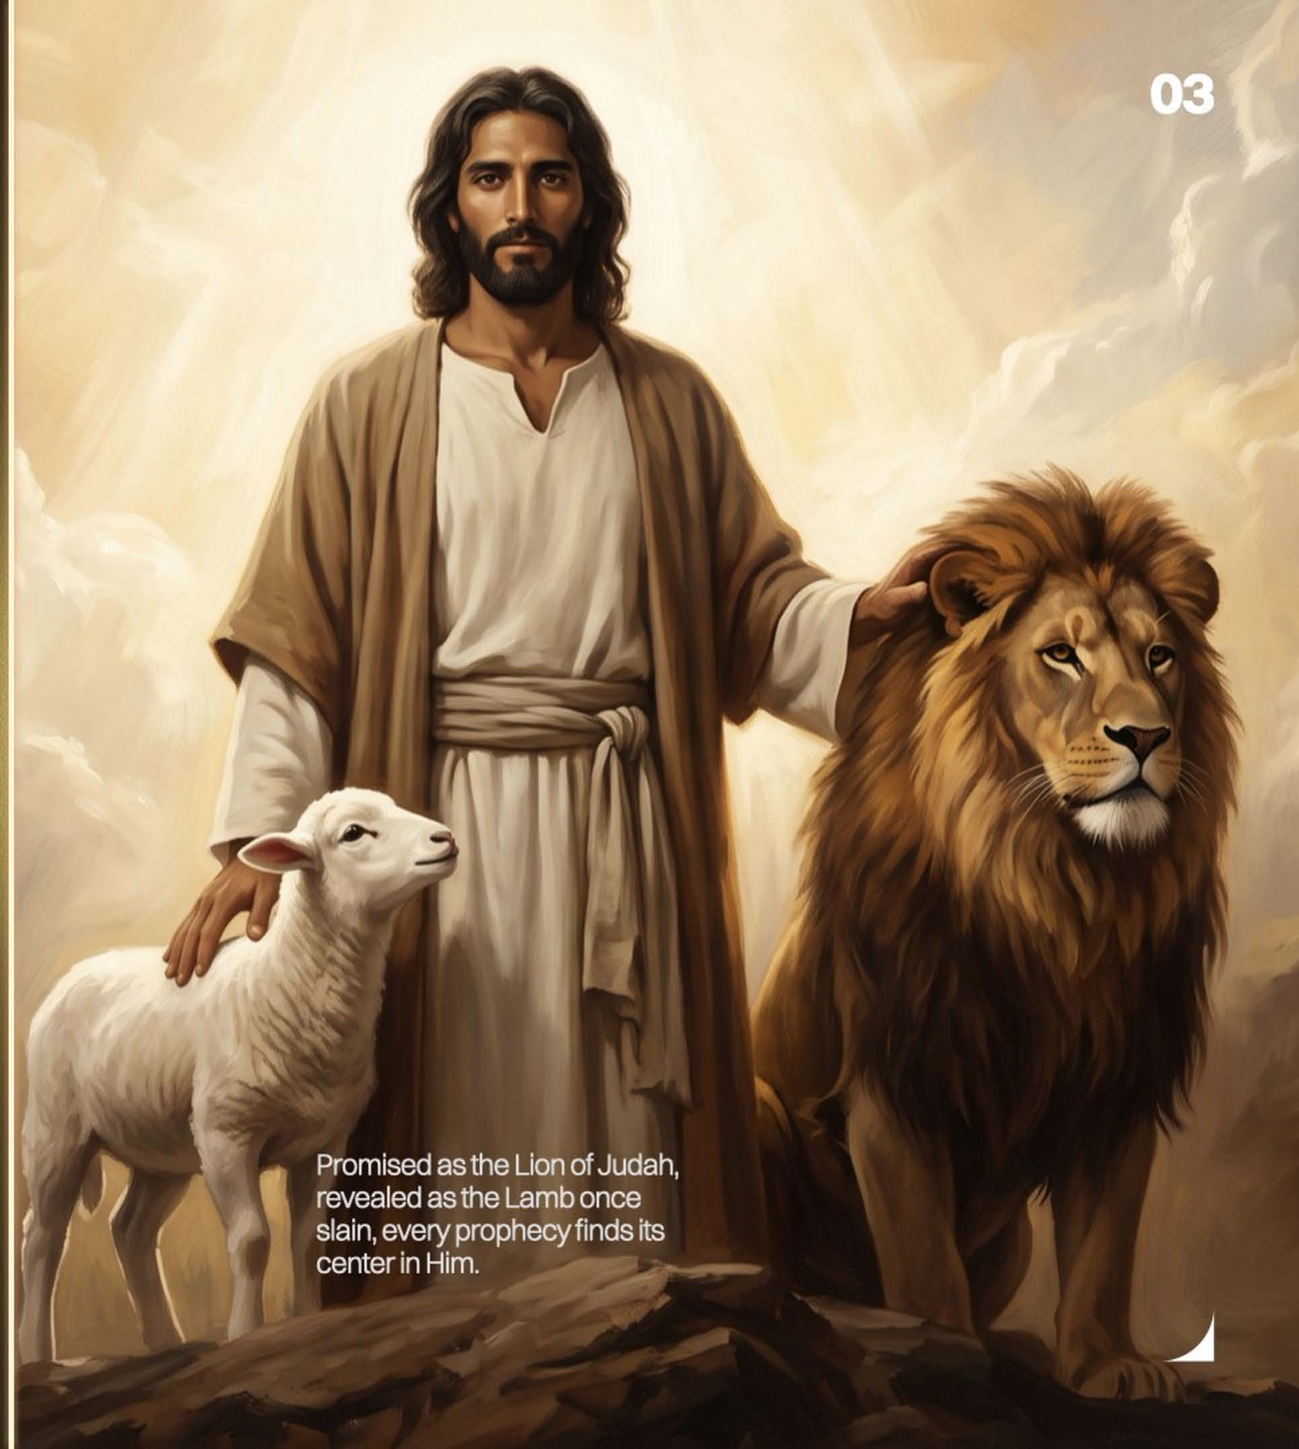
The Word of God.



"There is a God in heaven who reveals secrets" (Dan. 2:28), and in Jesus, that revealing Word took on flesh.

JESUS,

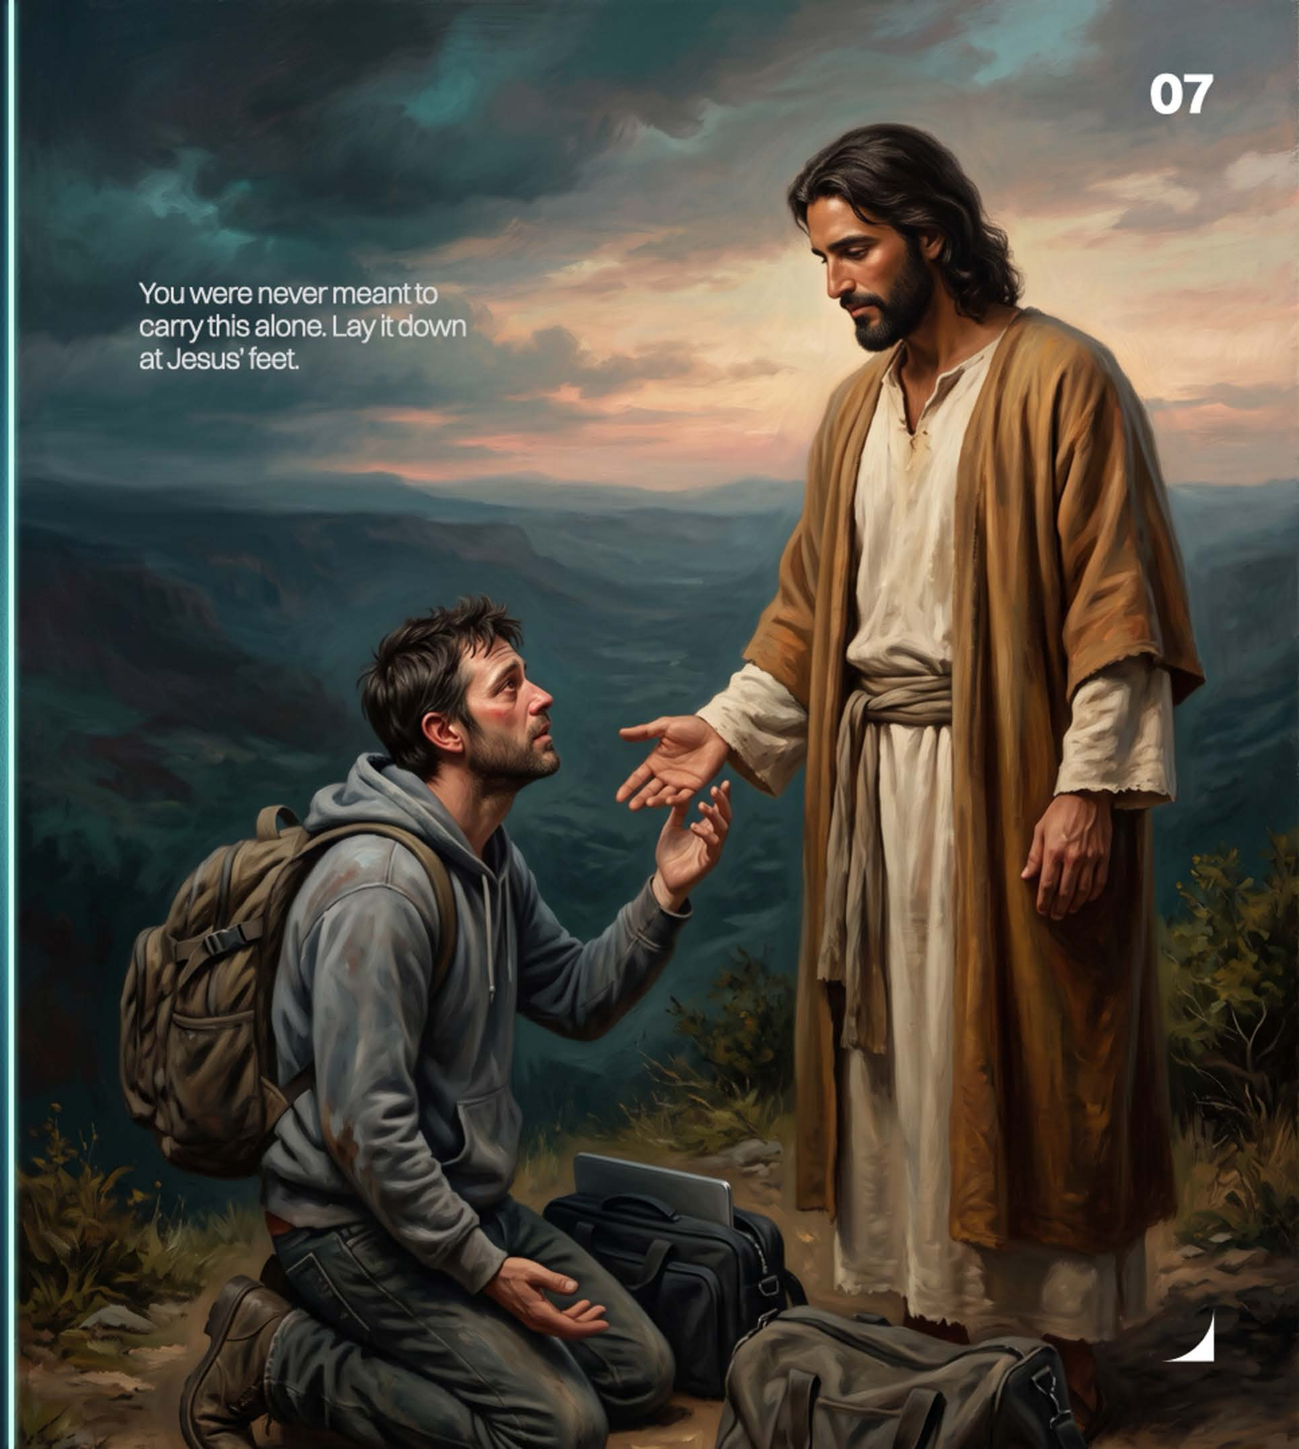
The Man of Prophecy.



Promised as the Lion of Judah, revealed as the Lamb once slain, every prophecy finds its center in Him.

JESUS,

The Rest Giver.



JESUS,

The Lifegiver.

JESUS,

The Shepherd.

ACTS 16:28-31

And he brought them out and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?” ... “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.”

JOHN 4:14

But whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.

Obey the king and live, or obey God and die?

MATTHEW 11:28

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

DANIEL 7:3-7

And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the other.

ROMANS 6:4

That just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

1 CORINTHIANS 15:51-55

Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed–in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

REVELATION 21:5

Then He who sat on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.” And He said to me, “Write, for these words are true and faithful.”

BIRTH–12 MONTHS
Pillar One: Pray Like Jesus

For infants, lessons should focus on loving interaction, simple words, songs, facial expressions, touch, and repetition. Keep each experience to about 2–5 minutes.

- Big Idea: God loves me and hears me.
- Anchor Verse: Jesus talked to God. Matthew 6:6
- Teacher Says: "Jesus prayed to God. We can talk to God, too." (As the teacher is talking, they can hold the baby's hand in a prayer position)

Activity: Hold or sit near the baby. Fold your hands and say a very short prayer.

- "Thank You, God, for loving us. Amen."
- Smile and gently say: "God loves you."

North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists®

BIRTH–12 MONTHS
Pillar One: Pray Like Jesus

Song:

Sing to the tune of Mary Had a Little Lamb:

“Thank You, God,
for loving me, loving me,
loving me.
Thank You, God,
for loving me, all throughout the day.”

Teacher Tip:

- Prayer for babies is experienced primarily through the caregiver's calm, loving presence.

North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists®

At the end of the four weeks, we encourage each Early Childhood Program to:

- Hold a dedication service and invite parents
- Present each child with a Growing Like Jesus pin and a certificate of completion
- The children will have the opportunity to sing songs they learned during the four weeks
- Each family will receive a copy of The Desire of Ages
- Have a celebration meal with families

Our Goal is to see children:

- learning about Jesus
- praying like Jesus
- serving like Jesus
- sharing Jesus

BIBLICAL ECHOES IN THE MODERN STORY

1. A subway station is an unlikely place for a birth, much like a stable was in Jesus' day.
2. The woman in our story, like Mary, can find no suitable place to have her child.
3. Coats laid down for the baby echo the Gospel image of garments placed before Jesus as King.
4. In both stories, the parents find help where they least expect it.
