DISTRICT CLERK

District Clerks are church members with a deep knowledge of the secretariat's work in the local church. They voluntarily assist their district pastors in the work with the church clerks of their districts.

WHAT DOTHEY DO?

- I. Train the church clerks of their districts.
- 2. Motivate the church clerks.
- 3. Support and follow up on the work of the church clerks.
- 4. Celebrate the achievements of the church clerks.

LET'S DO A DEEP DIVE

Charles Rampanelli holds a degree in Theology and a master's degree in the same area from UNASP. He began his ministry at the Santa Catarina Conference, where he was an assistant pastor in Rio do Sul. He served as chaplain at the Adventist College of Florianópolis, and was a district pastor in Xanxerê and Tubarão. He was leader of the Youth Ministry, Christian Stewardship, Family and Health, executive secretary, leader of Global Mission and Ministerial Association. He was also executive secretary at the Southern Brazil Union (2016-2022), held the same position two years ago at the Chilean Union (2022-2024) and is currently executive secretary of the Central Brazil Union. He is married to teacher Márcia Rampanelli, with whom he has two children: Júlia and Guilherme.
